

About us and Use of Your information

Additional Credit Application Information and Authority

You authorise us to pass your information to other lenders of our choice (without further reference to you) in an effort to obtain a loan on your behalf. You understand this may mean that the other lenders will register a search on your credit file held with credit reference agencies. If any of these loan applications are approved we will contact you to explain the differences (if any) from the first loan and to complete the correct loan contract for the subsequent lender. By confirming your agreement to proceed you are accepting that we or the lenders may each use your information in this way.
